

Darkness Never Lasts Forever..

Isaiah 9:1

Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those who were in distress.

There are many re-assuring verses in scripture which indicates that the darkness of sorrow/death/fear/failure/sadness/ worries will not endure forever. It has to and will come to an end.

There is always a light after darkness, but we still choose to believe and give more weightage to the darkness than the light. We remember our pains more than the joy. It's very surprising to see that, though joy and happiness are two sides of the coin having the same area and intensity, we give more importance to sad side than joy. We forget to count on the joys that we have.

Have we ever been joyful, on the involuntary movement of diaphragm which helps us in inhaling and exhaling or the amazing way of exchange of oxygen and carbon-di-oxide that happens in our body, every second? NO...we don't...leave aside, we don't even know the state-of-the-art system that we have within us, we take these for granted...BUT we do remember, second by second sorrow that we have passed through...Isn't it?

Valley of shadows of death, might come near you, to scare you but, it can never overcome you because the right to overcome the darkness, only lies with our LORD.

Psalms 23:4

Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

My buddies, do not look at the sadness because it will come and go ...that's the assurance from The Almighty.

The more you focus into your sadness, the sadness will focus on you. Keep the habit of looking for small joys in life. Later a stage will come, where you will find joy moving with you.

Chase happiness...and never give up.

Shalom!
